Reading and Writing Informational text in the Primary Grades
By Nell K. Duke and V. Susan Bennett-Armistead

Chapter 1:
Why Include Informational Text in the Primary Classroom
- Pg. 17 what is informational text?

Chapter 2:
A Framework for Weaving Informational Texts Into the Primary Classroom
- Pg. 38 Selecting Informational Text

Chapter 3:
Shared Reading and Read Aloud
- Pg. 51 Tips for Selecting informational text for read aloud and shared reading
- Pg. 54 3 Strategies
  Experience-Text-Relationship
  Instructional Conversations
  Think Alouds
- 8 Great Information Books For Read Aloud and Shard Reading
  Bring to show and talk about with ideas from page 65

Chapter 4:
Guided Reading
- Example from one teacher – pg. 72
- Grouping Ideas – pg. 80
- 3 Instructional Strategies
  Reciprocal Teaching
  Collaborative Strategic Reading
  Idea Circles

Chapter 5:
Independent Reading
- Research Says – pg. 101
- Incorporating info text – letter to parents – silent reading bags- reading to younger students
- Strategies
  Repeated Reading – pg.114
  Retelling – pg. 121
  Writing Reviews – pg. 124

Chapter 6: Writing – Use with Writing to Sources Kit
Chapter 7: Content Area
- Ideas from different grade level teachers – K, 1, 2, 3, Title,
- Selecting Books
- 3 Strategies
  - Vocabulary – pg. 182
    - Semantic Word Maps
    - Concept Wheels
    - Concept of Definition
    - Explaining Words in Context – Context Clues
  - Organizing Information – pg. 188
    - Venn Diagrams
    - Hierarchical Maps
    - Flow Charts
    - Flow Charts
    - Lists
    - KWL
- Questioning the Author – pg. 191

Chapter 8: The Classroom Environment
- Creating classroom libraries, dramatic play areas

Chapter 9: Challenges of Using Informational Text

Chapter 10: Professional Discussions and Development

Appendix A: Resources for Locating Good Information Books for Young Children – websites and books
Appendix B: Professional Books